CHAIRPERSON'S REPORT

Holiday Explorers' 34th Annual Report is delivered in what continues to be a challenging world. Although we had all hoped to be well clear of the consequences of Covid-19 by now, the past year has continued to provide a difficult operating environment. Despite this, the Board of Holiday Explorers is pleased to report that Holiday Explorers has continued to rise to the challenge and the wonderful team in the office has worked extremely hard to ensure our Holiday Times still offers some excellent opportunities for our members.

Again, the support of our wonderful community has been essential to our ongoing ability to operate. Our Volunteers have been vital in ensuring our trips can continue to run. Of course, without the unflagging enthusiasm of our members to sign up for the terrific and varied experiences on offer, we would have no reason to exist.

Our operations over the past financial year consisted of 179 holidays and over 16,700 hours with 233 of our 379 clients taking up the opportunity to participate in the experiences we were able to offer in a Covid-safe manner. These experiences were all supported by our wonderful Volunteers. These trips were a wonderful mix of day trips, overnight trips and longer stays away. This recent year has also seen the consolidation of some of the brilliant initiatives from the previous year introduced by the Holiday Explorers' team. The Holiday Explorers' community continues to be enriched by our relationship with Des's Group. Many thanks again to Des's Group and their team for their continued valued support and invaluable contribution to our experiences, ensuring that all participants travel safely to and from their different destinations.

Rosa Matto has again generously donated her time to run our cooking courses, which are still hugely loved by the clients. The opportunity to learn cooking skills from such a skilled and patient teacher is such an amazing opportunity. A big thank you to Rosa!

Operation Flinders also continues to be an extremely valuable member of our community, with the trips on offer under their banner enormously popular. The opportunity to learn and challenge yourself in a new environment in a safe and supported manner is not something everyone has access to, or even has the courage to tackle. It is therefore wonderful to see so many of our members grasp these opportunities and achieve more than they may have thought possible. The year ahead looks to be even better.

We have some new and exciting experiences to offer, including bike riding and many other skill development offerings. Our new office in Norwood will also provide a fresh start and improved working conditions for the team, as well as better facilities for all in-house activities. We are also working with our Covid advisory committee to look at being able to offer interstate trips again, which I know many of our clients will be excited to see. Thank you to the entire Holiday Explorers' community for their contributions to our operations over the past year.

There are so many people who contribute their time and energy, including Kelley and the team in the office, our wonderful Volunteers, and our Clients who bring so much enthusiasm to every trip we run. I would also like to personally thank all members of the Holiday Explorers' Board, who have contributed their time and expertise to support Holiday Explorers this year.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER'S REPORT

As I enter my third year as Holiday Explorers' CEO, I find that this organisation has ignited in me a passion for supporting people with disability to find their path and passion, and to journey with them into the future. 2021-2022 has been another challenging year with COVID affecting travel and creating barriers for our clients to take up the opportunities we offer.

Despite this, we have managed to exceed expectations, providing support and encouragement to our clients to feel safe when travelling with Holiday Explorers. The COVID protocols we have in place mean that our goals of social inclusion and life enriching experiences for our clients are still possible.

In these challenging times, what strikes me the most is the depth of our volunteer's kindness and willingness to support our clients to reach their goals and experience life's most enjoyable moments.

The level of our volunteer's dedication and unrelenting humanity never ceases to amaze me, and I am proud to say that our volunteers do an amazing job.

Our Operation Flinders trips have continued to deliver fun and challenging experiences developing new skills and confidence. This kind of adventure has been our most popular because it offers something different. Our clients experience adventure, and camaraderie, and connect to nature with new optimism.

We attribute a large part of the success of this program to Wayne Enright, whose passion for all things nature and adventure is inspirational. Our clients enjoy the time with Wayne and his team, discovering more about themselves through exploration of the natural world. Des' Minibus has been outstanding in meeting the local transport needs of our groups, providing safe, reliable and comfortable delivery to destinations.

We graciously acknowledge the dedication and helpfulness of the Des' drivers, whose music choices in the van, professionalism and experience add another dimension of enjoyment to our trips.

The support of Simon Clinton, (CEO) to be flexible and understanding when things change at the last minute has been brilliant and we can't thank all at Des' Minibus enough for standing with us. Another strong partnership is the one we have built with Holiday Wonders. They have provided our clients with great opportunities to experience longer South Australian based travel, including the great Australian outback and the Limestone Coast, always ensuring our needs are met. Thank you to Murray and Michael Agostino.

A special mention to the wonderful Rosa Matto who has embraced our clients with warmth and open arms delivering fun and educational cooking classes. We look forward to our future plans and all that they will bring. Exciting times ahead. On the work front, a special thanks to Growth IQ, our partners in all things finance and business. The team, Director Josh Richardson, Georgia Le Brun, and Gladys Cruz have become part of the Holiday Explorers family, and their dedication to helping us achieve our goals is invaluable.

We thank LOFTUS for providing our IT support needs, ensuring we are able to report and meet compliance throughout the year. A special thanks to Loftus CEO Justin Porter and his team who are always just a phone call away.

Our wonderful marketing partner "Made Creative Co" has also given fantastic support to Holiday Explorers, managing all our social media and helping to spread the Holiday Explorers word. Madelene Ragno and Rachel Eckert are the driving force behind Made Creative and we are so grateful to have them on board.

The team at Holiday Explorers has worked tirelessly and I send a heartfelt thank you to our staff, Board and volunteers. Their contribution to helping our clients live their best life has been a team effort that has been delivered each time a group leaves on their next adventure. Finally, with pleasure, I would like to let you know that we will be returning to interstate travel in our next booklet which will provide many new fun experiences.

VOLUNTEERS STORIES

"By sharing new experiences, encouraging the tourists to try something new and seeing their confidence grow"

My name is Nancy Cranwell and I have been a volunteer with Holiday Explorers for 21 years and have done over 250 trips totaling over 10,000 hours.

I was introduced to Holiday Explorers by my daughter who was at university studying Disability Studies. She chose to do her final 3-month placement at Holiday Explorers and assisted the Manager to compile the 10-year report. For the report she was asked to attend a Support Staff training day, which at that time was held at WEA.

Not wanting to go alone, she dragged her mother along!

I came away extremely impressed with Holiday Explorers and the role of Support Staff. I thought, "What a wonderful job they do!", but it was not in my comfort zone! I had never worked in the disability or caring industry and like others, thought that I would 'leave it to someone else'. However, everyone encouraged me to 'give it ago', so I completed my training and so began my journey.

For the first 4 years I did 8 day trips a year as I worked fulltime. In 2005, I was asked to support a longer trip, but having only done day trips, I knew I needed some extra training on longer holidays. I was not confident in supporting the personal needs of the tourists, but overcame this with advice, encouragement and help from other Support Staff and Holiday Explorers.

The most rewarding aspect of being a Volunteer with Holiday Explorers is the fun we have on our holidays. By sharing new experiences, encouraging the tourists to try something new and seeing their confidence grow. I hope to continue with Holiday Explorers for as long as I can, and I would like to thank all Support Staff past and present for their help in teaching me how to be part of an effective team.

Nancy Cranwell

"Knowing that you were the best part of someone's day and feeling satisfied that you were the reason someone smiled on that day"

I started volunteering with Holiday Explorers as I realised that I lacked an understanding of intellectual disability and did not know how to interact with my clients. I chose Holiday Explorers as I love helping people, especially helping different vulnerable groups and I also wanted to explore Adelaide. Holiday Explorers is an incredible organisation that provides a wide range of amazing activities to people with intellectual disabilities. It also provides comprehensive training and excellent support to its volunteers, which significantly enhanced my confidence to create a safe environment for clients to engage in the community.

I was worried before my first trip but everyone is friendly, supportive, warm and non-judgemental. When going on trips, I enjoy meeting new friends from all walks of life and gaining rich and wonderful perspectives. I learn so much from each volunteering experience- I am impressed by how much my clients know and understand that they are just differently enabled. Volunteering has been and will continue to be one of the best activities of my life.

Ngaityalya (Kurna, thank you),

Claire Wu

Thank you James and Diana Ramsey foundation for the grant provided to us for our clients. This grant helped a number of clients facing financial hardship to be involved and experience new things.

Thanks you to Chris Air for a donation of $1000. Our vulnerable recipient was so appreciative of your support. Your donation enabled her to attend the trip of her dreams – Sing along Sound of Music. INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT
TO THE MEMBERS OF HOLIDAY EXPLORERS INC

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial report, being a special purpose financial report, of Holiday Explorers Inc. ("the Association"), which comprises the statement of financial position as at 30 June 2022, the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, statement of changes in equity and statement of cash flows for the year then ended, notes comprising a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information and the statement by the board.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial report of the Association has been prepared in accordance with Division 60 of the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012 (ACNC Act), including:

- i. giving a true and fair view of the registered entity's financial position as at 30 June 2022 and of its financial performance for the year then ended; and
- ii. complying with Australian Accounting Standards to the extent described in Note 1, and Division 60 of the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Regulation 2013.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Report section of our report. We are independent of the entity in accordance with the ACNC Act, and the ethical requirements of the Accounting Professional and Ethical Standards Board's APES 110 Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the Code) that are relevant to our audit of the financial report in Australia. We have also fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Emphasis of Matter - Basis for Opinion

We draw attention to Note 1 to the financial report, which describes the basis of accounting. The financial report has been prepared for the purpose of fulfilling the registered entity's financial reporting responsibilities under the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012. As a result, the financial report may not be suitable for another purpose. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

Responsibilities of Board of Management for the Financial Report

The board of management is responsible for the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view and have determined that the basis of preparation described in Note 1 to the financial report is appropriate to meet the requirements of the Australian Charities and Not for Profits Commission Act 2012 and is appropriate to meet the needs of the members. The board's responsibility also includes internal control as board determines is necessary to enable the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view and is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

A member of Bentleys, a network of independent advisory and accounting firms located throughout Australia, New Zealand and China that trade as Bentleys. All members of the Bentleys Network are affiliated only, are separate legal entities and not in partnership. Liability limited by a scheme approved under Professional Standards Legislation. A member of Allinial Global – an association of independent accounting and consulting firms.

In preparing the financial report, the board is responsible for assessing the registered entity's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters relating to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the board either intends to liquidate the entity or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's Responsibility for the Audit of the Financial Report

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial report as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of this financial report.

Paragraph 41(c) of ASA 700 explains that when law, regulation or national auditing standards expressly permit, reference can be made to a website of an appropriate authority that contains the description of the auditor's responsibilities, rather than including this material in the auditor's report, provided that the description on the website addresses, and is not inconsistent with, the description of the auditor's responsibilities below. When the auditor refers to a description of the auditor's responsibilities on a website, the appropriate authority is the Auditing and Assurance Standards Board and the website address is <http://www.auasb.gov.au/Home.aspx>.

We communicate with the board regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.
